When the Dusts Settle

After a grueling day with 84 boards, the leaders are gradually emerging. In the Open, CBLT Thai had a 1 VP lead over Syabas Energy while Danta is only another 7 VPs behind in Section A. In Section B, Pattaya Bridge Club 2 has a comfortable 14 VP-lead over Tuason, with MCBA KL trailing by another 4 VPs. In the Ladies, Geo Timah B is leading MCBA 1 by 10 VPs, with sister Geo Timah B another 4 VPs away. In the Youths, Saniva is leading XMing by 20 VPs. More exciting matches are yet to come today.

Apologies

We wish to apologise for the confusion yesterday afternoon. There is no excuse. However, I wish to explain the situation. We have a limited supply of usable boards because a lot of the new bar-coded cards are not accepted by the duplicating machine properly. We are hence forced to share each set of 14 boards amongst 6 tables. They must also be played in sequence to avoid possible errors caused by the duplicating machine. In doing so there will be the necessary delays. I hope you will understand and bear with us.

Announcement

All teams are requested to indicate to the Office by 9:00 p.m. today whether they will participate in Wednesday's Swiss Teams in the unfortunate event that they do not qualify for the finals. Thank you.

Mixed Team Memo

David Law

There were two fine examples of uppercut defence in the Mixed Teams event, one taken and one missed. In Round 2, Board 23, West reached the better contract of 3 ♦ (3 ♣ is not makeable) but the play did not match the bidding. Two spades were cashed and declarer ruffed the third. All that was needed was to play a heart and another, and then ruff the third but declarer was distracted by the club suit which look so inviting. So a club was played to the king and North hesitated a while before taking the Ace. That might have given a clue to where the jack was, but declarer tried to establish by cashing the queen and ruffing to hand instead. South had the presence to ruff with the ten, promoting partner's nine for the setting trick.

In Round 8, Board 2, the bidding went 1 ♣ – 1 ♥ – 2 ♥ – 3 ♣ – P – 5 ♣ all pass. West cashed the Ace and king of hearts, dropping partner's QJ doubleton, then thought about partner having the singleton ten of clubs. But somewhat flummoxed by declarer's 3 ♣ rebid, decided on the "safe" exit of the heart ten and declarer was home. To ensure partner ruffs, West need to play a small heart to promote his jack of trumps.

PABF MASTER POINTS

The 31st ABCC Organising Committee has decided that PABF master points at this Championship will be awarded only for the top three three placings in each event, instead of up to 10 places as published in the Bulletin, which is the standard PABF scale. Master Points will not be awarded for the Youth series as it is not eligible with only two NBOs participating.
